The Wills of Archery Safety

- I will only walk on the archery range.
- I will ensure my bow is safe before shooting.
- I will only nock an arrow when I am instructed to do so.
- I will follow all whistle commands the range officer gives.
- I will follow the whistle commands:
 - 2 whistles- “Get Bow”
 - 1 whistle - “Shoot”
 - 3 whistles- “Go get arrows”
 - Multiple whistles- “Emergency. Stop shooting. Put arrows in the quiver, bow on the rack, and return to the area behind the waiting line.
- I will make sure my scorer and I agree on my end score before I pull my arrows.
- I will only draw my bow with an arrow nocked and pointed toward the target (no sky drawing).
- I will raise my hand when I drop an arrow.
- I will not bend to retrieve it until instructed to do so.
- I will only draw my bow and release the string after I have been instructed to do so (no dry firing).

I understand and will comply with the “wills of archery safety”:
